

Catherine Perry

February 12, 1932 - August 24, 2024

Catherine M. Perry , 92 passed Saturday , August 24, 2024 with family by her side

Catherine was born on Bergen st. Brooklyn NY to John and Catherine (Malone) Duggan. She attended St. Augustine grammar school and graduated from Girls Commercial High School

Catherine first worked in the office at Republic Airport on Long Island and later worked several years as a secretary at Daniel F. Young imports/exports in Lower Manhattan.

Catherine was loving, caring, funny, tough and a bit stubborn. She despised having her picture taken but did so reluctantly. She lost three of her adult children and bent but never broke. She handled everything thrown her way and lifted others up. She never got down or said why me, she leaned on her Catholic Religion to get through the hard times and always remained positive. She doted on her grandchildren, often slipping them money when they were leaving her home. Catherine loved her husband Frank, they were married over fifty years and did everything together including trips to Monmouth Park and Atlantic City, trying new restaurants along the way. She cherished watching her grandkids play sports, she was always there on the sideline cheering and offering words of support. She loved animals and leaves behind her beloved cat Charlie. She loved her N.Y. Mets and watching football on TV. Catherine loved to cook and made a great macaroni salad

Catherine was a great mother who loved her children and treated her daughter in laws and son in law as if they were her own. She loved when the family gathered together for holidays and cooked huge Thanksgiving Dinners back in the day. She loved to donate to charities. She loved her neighbors on Richmond Ave. and they had friendships dating back 45 years
