“ She was the best Mom to me and my sister Annette. She was kind and always listened and had a great sense of humor and I remember delicious Sunday dinners of pasta and sauce cooking on the stove.

I miss you Mom and my heart hurts not having you in my life anymore. I was so lucky to have you as my mother. You cared and nurtured us and made our lives truly wonderful growing up. You were always there for us and you will always be a part of me and in my heart till I see you again.

Rest easy Mom and know you are loved always.

“ I was looking for a family member and came across her obituary,her name jumped out at me 40 years later.

I attended Ps8 in the 70's,in a few words,even as a child,i recognized she was a sweetheart,a fun lady.Looking back as an adult,u cab say,a good woman.

Sorry for your loss,myself being a stranger,she had an impact on my life.Can't imagine the loss your feeling,God bless
