

Charles Barresi

July 3, 1940 - September 27, 2020

Charles Barresi, 80 of Little Egg Harbor, New Jersey passed away on on Sunday, September 27, 2020, at Hackensack Meridian Hospital surrounded by his loving family.

Born Wednesday, July 3, 1940 in New York, New York, he was the son the late Philip and Grace Barresi. He was the beloved husband of Vincenzina Barresi. They were married for 58 years.

He and Vincenzina moved to Staten Island in 1967 where raised their sons Philp and Charles. They resided here until they retired and settled in Little Egg Harbor in 2012.

Charles was a graduate of the Pratt Institute of Technology. He earned his Associates Degree in Architecture. He went on to work in the field and made his way to become the proud owner of his own firm; Slomanson, Smith and Barresi. He worked and commuted to Bleeker Street in Manhattan until his retirement in 2000.

He was a true family man. He looked forward to the holidays, family get togethers and special occasions. He enjoyed going for dinner with family and friends. He was a simple man who enjoyed a nice glass of Johnny Walker Black and Remy Martin XO.

One of his favorite pastimes was carpentry. Something he passed along to his sons along with many other life skills. With his wood working skills, he enjoyed building his toys for his grandchildren, they were his true pride and joy.

Over the years, Charles and Vincenzina had the opportunity to travel. One of their favorite places to visit was Italy, having traveled back there numerous times. They always enjoyed an adventure and getting to see the world together.

Surviving are his wife Vincenzina, his sons, Philip and Charles, daughter in laws Rosemary and Kim Marie, siblings Paul, Natalie Insalaco and Michael; his two brothers Philip and Daniel pre deceased him, his grandchildren Nicholas, Philip and his wife Brenda, Jeanmarie and Alexander and his great-granddaughter Giulietta. He was a loving uncle and friend to many.

He will be truly missed by all.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be at 10:00 AM on Thursday at St. Patrick's Church located at 53 St. Patrick's Place Staten Island, New York 10306. Interment will be in Resurrection Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 5:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Wednesday, September 30, 2020, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.scaliahome.com

Dear Jean, Philip and Charles,
We were very sad to just hear about Chuck's passing. I remember how kind he was to everyone that knew him, there was always a smile on his face and he was always building something new for his family.
Everyone could see how much he devoted himself to his family. Chuck will always be in our prayers 🙏

“ Our hearts are breaking with the news of Chuck’s passing. In our lives, we have never known anyone like Chuck. He was a truly loving and devoted family man. Chuck was a wonderful friend who opened up his heart and home to embrace us as family. There was no one like him. He was one of a kind. We were truly blessed to have known Chuck and will never forget him. Our prayers and thoughts go out to Jean and the rest of the family. Although we cannot be there in person, we are there in spirit.

“ Our sincerest sympathy to the family of Chuck. You were a very special man who was admired and respected by all who came in contact with him. He adored his wife Jeanne and his sons, grandchildren and great grandchild. They were a special couple who loved each other more and more each day. I know in my heart he is a peace with the Lord.

“ I remember Chuck interviewed me at SS&B for my first job out of school, and I worked for him for 8 years. He taught me a great deal about architecture and construction. I worked on projects for the USPS and Macy's with Chuck. A funny, kind and smart gentlemen, who liked "POST TIME" on Friday afternoons.

You will be missed and thank you for the opportunity to work with you.
