

Charles Braccio, Jr.

June 27, 1950 - December 19, 2020

Charlie Braccio was a beloved husband of 39 years, father, brother and friend whose legacy of resilience and perseverance lives on forever.

He was a committed postal worker for forty years. He selflessly dedicated his life to his wife and two daughters, even if it meant working and traveling long hours through the coldest and darkest of days. He beat cancer in 1997 but scathed with chronic excruciating pain he fought through life without a single complaint and a smile on his face. Even in these circumstances, he was relentless in providing for his family.

Music was Charlie's passion. As an avid collector with an old soul he amassed thousands of records and albums -- the likes of Johnny Maestro, swing, doo wop and R&B. He could tell you every detail of each artist and the story behind them. He still possesses his first record from age 12. He also enjoyed sharing his knowledge about old noir movies.

Charlie has touched the lives of countless people whether it be striking up a conversation with a stranger at the grocery store or whipping up a custom mixtape for his friends and coworkers. He was such a genuine and thoughtful person whom everyone knew and loved effortlessly. Charlie will always be remembered.

Survived by wife Christine and daughters Nicole and Olivia.

The family will receive friends from 1:00 to 5:00 PM on Tuesday, December 22, 2020, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

“ My brother Charlie was the strongest Guy I know. He was a real trooper. He fought may battles of pain & suffering through the years due to health issues. He fought right up to the end. He got the best care you can ever imagine from his wife & 2 daughters. Their love & devotion got him through some tough days. REST IN ETERNAL PEACE MY DEAR BROTHER.

“ Uncle Charlie was such a great uncle and all around human being. A true family man who loved everyone. I remember how concerned he was when Brett and I were going through all the kidney issues. He would call us and give us so much support. He and Brett connected immediately on music the first time they met. They were down in the basement for hours going through his record collection and making mixes for the car. He was loved so much by all of us and will truly be missed.

“ I will forever be grateful to Charlie for being an AMAZING husband to my sister and loving father to his his two girls. Charlie knew I liked a particular chocolate treat and always had it waiting on me when I visited. He called me “squirt” his term of endearment. Charlie never wanted to be in the spotlight or to seek credit for those “good deeds” for which he would do without reservation. Charlie has burned a forever a whole in my heart and I know that I’m am better person for having been fortunate enough to be in Charlie’s life.
Rest In Peace my sweet, kind and gentle brother-in-law.

“ We knew Charles forty six years. Victor considered him his best friend and will miss him . All the times we were together we laughed, talked, discussed, and enjoyed. Our hearts ache for you and the girls. His love for you and the girls was beyond the moon. At Nicole's wedding party he told me how proud he was of them. We love him and miss him and will never forget him.
