

Charles W. Marks

January 25, 1922 - September 17, 2017

Charles W. Marks, 95 passed away September 17, 2017, at the Eger Health & Rehab Center in Staten Island, New York.

He was born in Brooklyn, New York and was longtime resident of Kings County. Charles was a beloved son, brother, loving uncle and friend to all that knew.

US Army Veteran.

Charles enlisted at the age of 18 in 1940 and served in North Africa and Italy for the duration of the World War II in the Military Police. He was called back to service in 1950 and served in the Korean War until 1953. Charles was a long time and active member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW).

Early on he worked for a liquor distributor as a part time salesmen and sold more liquor than the full time salesmen. He was also a twenty-year dedicated veteran of the New York Fire Department.

Charles will be remembered for having a real zest for life & being loved by many, he will be missed. He had a lot of respect for others and he would joke around with you, teasing - the nurses loved it.

Charles has shaped many lives. He was a very proud man, kind and generous and cared about family. Most of the time he would put your needs, wants and interests before his own. Charles loved dancing and music, always willing to glide along the dance floor. He was an avid reader and photographer with many varied interests, looking to learn something new. An active sportsman, he grew up playing handball, fishing and whitewater rafting. At the age of 50 he took up skiing and skied in Canada, US and Europe. Later he got hooked on golf.

Mr. Marks was predeceased by his wife Margret; they were married in 1949. He is survived by two nieces and three nephews, Georgianna Hallheimer, Linda Sebexen, Wayne Hallheimer and spouse, Arthur and Charles Marks and their spouses, cousins, his great and grand nieces and nephews

“ Charlie--I used to call you Charlie Brown! Always with a great laugh. Great sense of humor and song. You loved to dance and shared a golf cart with my mother. Made her happy. Made all of us smile. We shared, oh so many meals! You always brought us out to dinner and then out to dinner and then again--our wonderful rituals at The Windsor Cafe or Lobster with your sister and all the family. You were and are and always will be loved and in my heart.--Love from, Kathryn Fazio

*Dear sweet "Uncle Charlie," You were everyone's favorite "uncle" and a wonderful friend. You loved people and made us all love you. You were larger than life, always with a ready laugh and happy smile. My heartfelt sympathy and love to your family, who took such great care of you, and who loved you so. They, and everyone who knew you, will miss you greatly. You will forever remain in a happy place in our hearts.
