

Charles W. Schneider

August 24, 1919 - January 7, 2017

Charles W. Schneider, 97, of Eltingville passed away on January 7, 2017. He was born on August 24, 1919.

A lifelong resident of Staten Island, he was the son of the late Charles and Caroline (Kashavsky). Charles served two tours of duty in the U.S. Army. He was a Veteran of World War II and the Korean War. He was awarded the Bronze Star and a Purple Heart. In between wars and later on he worked for the Staten Island Ferry for thirty five years, first as a deck hand and for the majority of his time as a ferry captain. He retired in 1981.

Charles enjoyed golfing in his younger years and later was a member of the Marine & Aviation Anchor Club. He and his wife Beulah volunteered for cruises that the club sponsored, that served handicapped children. In appreciation for their efforts, a special cruise was named after him. He presented with a plaque which recognized the achievement.

Charles and Beulah were married for seventy years and he missed her terribly after her passing in 2013.

He is survived by his daughters, Carol Baggs and her husband William, and Elaine Harriott and her husband James. He was the cherished grandfather of William Baggs, Glenn Baggs, Karen Adams, James Harriott, Kurt Harriott and Kimberly Tadrick. He is also survived by nine great grandchildren.

Funeral Services will be held on Tuesday 12:30 p.m., at The John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd., at Eltingville Station. Interment will follow in Ocean View Cemetery.

The family will receive friends on Monday from 2-5 & 7-9 p.m.
