

Chris DeLuca

January 1, 1947 - February 21, 2024

In Loving Memory of Chris DeLuca, a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and cousin, passed away on Wednesday, February 21, 2024, at Staten Island University Hospital North.

Born Wednesday, January 1, 1947 in Brooklyn, New York, he was the son of the late Daniel and Antoinette DeLuca.

Chris dedicated his life to serving his community as a sanitation worker and bus driver, leaving a lasting impact on those he encountered. He enjoyed watching sci-fi films and was particularly fond of Star Trek.

Chris was the epitome of strength, both physically and in character, earning the admiration of all who knew him. His close bond with cousins resembled that of siblings, creating cherished memories that will be forever treasured.

As we bid farewell to a remarkable man, let us remember Chris for his unwavering love, dedication, and the mark he left on the lives of those fortunate enough to have known him. May his spirit live on in the fond memories we shared and the enduring impact of his legacy.

Chris was the beloved husband of 55 years to Joanne. Loving father to Daniel. Fond father-in-law to Michelle. Dear brother to Filomena. Devoted grandfather to Mason and Chloe. Cherished uncle to Annette, Donna and Stacey. Chris is also survived by many loving cousins.

The family will receive friends from 4:00 - 8:00 o,n, on Sunday, February 25, 2024, at the John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station), Staten Island, New York.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, February 26, 2024 at Holy Child Church located at 4747 Amboy Rd Staten Island, New York 10312. Interment will follow in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.
