

Clare Lawler

September 9, 1948 - November 28, 2020

Clare Lawler of Great Kills formerly of Eltingville passed away on November 28, 2020. She was born in Staten Island to the late Joseph and Adele Lawler. Clare was a consultant in the Insurance industry as well as a business owner.

She could be described by her family, as warm, loving and compassionate. She was the best cat mom. She was a sports fan and never missed a Giants game on television. She was a supporter of Meals on Wheels and was the type of person who was loved by those who met and knew her.

She is survived by her brother Teddy and her sister Jacqueline Molokie

A gathering of family and friends will be held on Thursday from 4-8 pm at the John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc 28 Eltingville Blvd.. A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered on Friday at St. Clare's Church at 11: 15 a.m. Committal services will follow at Rosehill Crematory Linden NJ.

Please be mindful due to the current State mandate that a mask must be worn at all times in the funeral home and social distancing requirements must be followed during the services. Due to the current Pandemic a strict 30 person in room policy is in effect, as well as a maximum of 150 people permitted in Church. Please adhere to this policy and allow others to pay their respects as well.

Due to the current pandemic circumstances please note:

We do not accept deliveries from outside vendors for bakery products, fruit baskets, and floral arrangements until further notice.

Floral Arrangements can be purchased from our in house floral designers who work under the most stringent sanitary conditions which include temperature checks, mask wearing, distancing and protective clothing.

We must protect the families we serve, our own families and staff who operate the funeral home.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.scaliahome.com

“ Clare entered my mind today though I haven't seen her in 20 years. I googled her to find her obituary. I'm so sorry for the loss to all of her family and friends. Clare and I worked together at AIG and later at Kemper in Chicago. She visited me here in Florida. We enjoyed each other's company but lost touch over the years. Godspeed Clare.

“ Clare was a kind, thoughtful and compassionate cousin. We spoke often since the passing of my brother. Know there is no pain only joy and happiness with those that have gone on before her.
