

Concetta DiPietro

October 19, 1928 - October 25, 2024

Connie DiPietro, 96, beloved mother, passed away in her sleep on October 25, 2024, leaving a void her family cannot fill.

She was born in Brooklyn, New York to Frank and Carmela Gianferrara. Connie and her older sister, Vincenza, grew up in the Carrol Gardens area of Brooklyn. Connie studied textile design and ended up working as a seamstress in the Garment District of Manhattan. She lived her life as a devout Catholic. She met and married John DiPietro in 1954 and settled down in Park Slope Brooklyn to raise a family.

Connie was a devoted mother/ grandmother to her three sons and their families. She was a wonderful cook and loved to entertain and feed her growing family. Nothing brought her more joy than listening to opera, reading, attending Broadway shows, dancing with her husband, and maintaining her seamstress skills by altering clothes and creating outfits and costumes for her family. After John retired, they relocated for several years to Florida but ultimately moved back to Brooklyn.

Connie and John loved to travel and during their 65 years of marriage, they traveled to Europe, England, Hawaii, and the Caribbean. She regretted that she was never able to travel to Alaska with her husband.

Connie was preceded in death by her parents, sister, and beloved husband John. She is survived by her sons Joseph and his wife Kathy, John and his wife Helen, Richard and his wife Antoinette, her grandchildren, Stefani and her husband, Michael Bianco, Christine, Michael, Richard and his wife, Nicole, Victoria and Anthony and his wife, Michelle, and two great-grandchildren, Michael Bianco and Bella Bianco, who will never forget the love she brought to their lives. Connie is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank the wonderful caring staff at Eger Lutheran Home and Services, Inc, the hospice staff, and her dedicated home care nurse, Miriam Raimondo of Region Care.

A vigil will be held on Friday, November 1, 2024, at John Vincent Scalia Funeral Home, 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, NY 10312 from 2 pm- 5 pm and 7 pm – 9 pm.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated in memory of Connie on Saturday, November 2, 2024, at 10 am at Holy Child Church, 4747 Amboy Road, Staten Island, NY 10312 followed by a Christian burial at St. Charles Cemetery, 2015 Wellwood Ave, East Farmingdale, NY 11735

In lieu of flowers, the family is asking for donations to be made in her honor to:

“ Best mom anyone can ask for. Allowed us to grow up and form our own individual personalities and paths in life. All ways there for a helping hand, advise or to set us on the right track.

I will definitely miss our conversations whether serious or funny. I will miss you but you will always have a special place in my heart. Sending you hugs and kisses in heaven now. Mom, give pop a hug and kiss from me.

Love you

John
