

Cornelius J. Harrington, Jr.

August 7, 1937 - May 29, 2017

Cornelius (Buddy) Harrington Jr. of Eltingville passed away on Monday May 29 at SI University Hospital surrounded by his loving family. A man of great faith and devotion Neil served as a Lieutenant with the Transit Police retiring in 1990, he then went to work for the US Government as an Auditor for the Department of Transportation, retiring in 1995. Up until his death he still maintained his private Accounting practice,. Born in the Bronx he lived in Astoria before settling in Eltingville with his wife of 55 years Geraldine (nee Murphy).

In his leisure time Neil enjoyed walking the Staten Island Mall with his friends, reading, watching Fox news, going to the Jersey Shore but most of all spending time with his family.

A proud Veteran of the US Marine Corp as well as an active Naval Reservist during the Vietnam War., Neil was a member of the Marine Corp League and the Lieutenants Benevolent Association. He was a graduate of Baruch College and held the distinction of earning two Bachelor's Degrees.

In addition to his wife Geraldine, he is survived by his 11 Children; Michael, Neil. Kevin, John, Matthew, Timmy, Mary Hansen, Pat Ouellette, Geraldine Falcon, Maureen Harrington and Christine Tabrizi. He will be missed by his 33 grandchildren, and his one great grandchild. He was the loving brother of Sheila LaPolla and the late Frances Mpsiakos.

A gathering of family and friends will take place on Wednesday from 7-9PM and on Thursday from 2-4 & 7-9PM

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 10:00AM Friday morning at Holy Child Church.

Interment will follow in Resurrection Cemetery

“ I worked with Lt. Harrington in the 80s in Dist 33. Not only did we worked together but we also went to the local catholic church every Sunday. We also played handball at the handball court behind the District. He was a great boss and a caring person. Writing this brings back a lot of good memories. My prayers are with the family. May the Lords mercy guide him to eternal rest. God Bless, Louis Pagan
