“ There are so many precious memories watching Cindy growing up on Ogden Avenue ~ from birthdays to holidays, special occasions to evening cups of tea; and she was the best babysitter anyone could have asked for. After we moved her visits became even more special. Cin was always in good spirits no matter how chaotic it got as we enjoyed food, wine and good times. She will always have a very special place in my heart... You are all in my thoughts and prayers with deepest sympathy.
Love, Carol Mullan

“ There have been many wonderful times we shared since Cindy became part of the Kambos family. I do remember how much fun we all had the first time Mike and Cindy went to Key West. Especially when we went to the Littlest Bar! May she RIP. We will all miss her.
