“ I owe my career now to Dan. Without knowing me, he saw something that no one else wanted to see. My career started at Brooklyn Union Gas because of Dan! He was a wonderful gentleman! When we were much younger, I watched him weather the worst storm imaginable with grace and courage. Then I saw God turn his sorrow and mourning to joy! I am so grateful that he lived a long and happy life with a loving family! I am so blessed to have met and to have worked with him! My prayers are with you, Hall family.

“ Danny and I go back 70 years. Our fathers were both friendly from the NYPD. They introduced us as we entered the St. Vincent Ferrer schoolyard on our first day of first grade. We stayed together. The nuns lined us up two by two and we had to hold hands so we didn't stray from the line. We went through the door up a few steps but before we made the turn up the classroom, Danny let go of my hand and said “see ya” and bolted through the altar boy room down the steps and out the Glenwood Rd. exit. He ran the four blocks to his house. His father Bill Hall was a few minutes behind him returning home and can you imagine the surprise on his face when his son who he just left at First Grade was now in the living room watching TV. Rest in peace Dan. I'll never forget you.
