“ Yesterday, I attended the visitation service for my dear friend, Daniel Matera, who passed away on August 11, '24. Danny was a force of nature—larger than life and also full of life. He was a loyal and loving friend, someone who could raise you up with his unparalleled wit, even though he was down himself. I knew Danny for almost 45 years, and even though we weren't in constant contact for the duration of that time, whenever we did talk, it was like no time elapsed. Danny, I will miss you always and forget you never. Until we meet again, rest easy knowing that you are loved by many and that your memory will be eternal. 🙏❤️🙏
