“ Rest in peace my friend, I remember my teammate on the Farrell wrestling team going out and battling in all his matches despite being new to the sport and undersized. I also remember the man who reached out to me years later for work out tips, excited to start his new job with the union and telling me how he's quitting smoking and trying to get healthy because he was trying to stick around for his kid whom he described as his whole world. Deepest condolences to the family - Pat Sandberg
