“ Our deepest sympathy and condolences to Rosanne and Charles. We watched Danny grow from a nine month old baby into a successful man, with many notable accomplishments. There are many cherished moments from back yard fun to walks around the block with the girls. He left us as much too young an age. We will always remember his pleasant disposition and his warm smile. He is in a far better place. We will miss you! Rest in peace.~ The Antoniello & Iannuzzi Families

“ To say I am devastated would be an understatement. Today, my childhood friend passed away from a sudden medical episode. I've know him since I was two, and have had countless memories growing up together. From cops and robbers, summer time fun, late night walks, Ralph's ices trips, communion parties, birthday parties, my grandma putting us all in the ring pool in the yard, neighborhood shenanigans, and many more, I cannot believe you were taken from us so soon! I'm so glad my dad always had the video camera, and I will definitely be watching those videos. I just saw you in the yard last weekend, and you asked if my girls' wanted to see your dog! Oh how they love him! My heart is broken for you, your amazing mom, and your brother!! And even Beckham! I'm sure your dad, Bob, and Grandma Rose welcomed you with open arms! God had larger plans for you, and wanted your warm smile with him. May you Rest In Peace. I will miss you, the yard and block will never be the same but the memories will last forever. 🥺🙏🙏🙏 - Rosemarie Antonello Sarcona
