“ We didn't personally know Dan, but because of his friendliness and outgoing nature we would look forward to spotting him wearing his plaid Scottish cap at our regular Sunday after Mass breakfasts at the Richmond Diner. We would always exchange witticisms and walk away smiling! A special decent man he was, full of life and pleasantness a breath of fresh air. Thank you for your service to our nation & community sir. Rest in Peace Dan, we know God has a special place for you. -John & Joan Dell'Isola
