

Dante D. Tedeschi

February 21, 1934 - May 17, 2019

Dante D. Tedeschi, 85 of Todt Hill passed away on Friday, May 17, 2019, at Staten Island University Hospital North.

Dante lived in many different communities during his life, after moving from the Bronx he moved to Forest Hills, Queens, and then to Swartswood NJ, before moving to Staten Island.

He was a printer for Bowne Printing Company. He later became a Triboro Bridge and Tunnel Officer for the TBTA who worked mostly at the Throgs Neck Bridge.

Dante was a car collector. His favorite cars were Mustangs. He also joined the Mustang Club of America; where he was able to share his love of Mustangs with others who felt the same. When he was younger, he enjoyed riding motorcycles. He also loved to travel and has been to Europe several times. Above all else, he loved spending time with his grandchildren who were the light of his life.

Dante is pre-deceased by his loving wife of 31 years Patricia who passed away in 1986; as well as his late son Daniel and daughter Denise.

Dante is survived by his daughter Donna Marcello. He was a devoted grandfather to Christopher, and a cherished great grandfather to 8 great grandchildren.
