“ Dearest Mom, today makes 2 weeks since you want home to be with the Lord. I still can't wrap my head around it that you left. It really was a sucker punch. As you can see we are all trying our best to cope with your absence. John & I probably feel it the most being left with a empty house & your empty recliner chair. Today I'm feeling it as we start a new week and I'm left with developing a new routine. It's Price of Right time and I can't bare watching it without you. Breakfast was a lonely experience that I will have to adjust too. Suddenly I'm left to pick up the pieces of your life and readjust to a new normal for Henry, Cooper & Me. I'm so proud of the strength and courage you displayed all your life. I pray I will be of that same courage & strength in the days, weeks, months to come <3
