“ Aunt Dolores was always so quite & petite. One of my memories as a child was we went to Uncle Frank & Aunt Dolores house one Christmas & my gift from them was a pair of White GoGo Boots that I wanted so badly. When talking to Aunt Dolores she was soft spoken & listened to what you had to say. RIP Aunt Dolores you are now in heaven with Uncle Frank & the best of the best Tufano's.

My memories of Mrs Tufano was going to the home of my best friend Karen in a hot summer day and she say what would like to drink Lorraine? I would always say , water please, she would laugh and say your my water bug! One day Karen and I wanted to go shoe shopping when we were 12 years old. Mrs Tufano gave her the money In a jar on top of the refrigerator she was saving for her self to buy a new coat. I loved Mrs Tufano like a second Mom. May her sweet soul Rest In Peace 🙏
