“ I have so many good memories that I could write a book - We worked closely under pressure for years; I had the pleasure to work with a true gentleman and a friend who kept me in the right frame of mind which at times was not easy.

I told my wife and she recalls the evening with Dom which I share: My wife is a very conservative and outspoken right to life advocate. She sat with Domenic in Row 3 at the Met Opera. Seated directly behind them in Row 4 was the then US Senator from Colorado, Pat Bradley and her companion who shared an opposite view on this and all issues.. Domenic quote to me, " miles of political difference separated by only one row is not good. I must prevent them from engaging in conversation. During the performance, Dom gave me at least ten thumbs up which we both acknowledge with a big smile that he has prevented the women from acknowledging each other.

God will welcome a beautiful person. All picture him with his warm smile..

“ I met Domenic when I worked at GCMIC and he became my Manager. I have had the privilege of becoming his friend and we've shared many good times and made memories over the past 20+ years. I will love him forever and forget him never. I am grateful he is now at peace but I will miss him. With my sincere sympathy, Pat Pieper
