

Dominic Palermo

April 4, 1937 - June 2, 2020

Dominic Palermo, 83, passed away on Tuesday, June 2, 2020, at Staten Island University Hospital North.

He was born and raised in the Bensonhurst section of Brooklyn and graduated from New Utrecht High School. At the age of 25 he met the love of his life, Patricia Monduori, and one year later they married and moved to Eltingville. In 1970, they settled in Great Kills where they raised their five loving children.

Dominic was a Correction Officer for the NYC Department of Corrections, working in the Manhattan Court system. He proudly served for 22 years. After his retirement, he worked for Pioneer Transportation Corp. in Staten Island for 20 years.

One of his greatest passions was playing paddle ball, He did this for over 40 years and played all over Staten Island, many times with his son. He also loved spending time down the family's shore house every summer and enjoyed crabbing with his family.

Dominic was loved by many and enjoyed several friendships over the years, some being lifelong friendships. He was kind hearted and everyone who who knew him loved him.

Above all, he was a loving and devoted husband, father and grandfather who treasured time spent with his family. He adored his grandchildren and never missed an opportunity to attend their baseball games and all their activities.

Dominic was predeceased by his parents, Joseph and Angelina and his sister, Lucille.

He was the beloved husband of 58 years to Patricia. Loving father to Deborah Agugliaro, Patricia Gerwer, Karen Ames and Joseph and Dominic Palermo. Fond father-in-law to John Agugliaro, Vincent Gerwer, Michael Ames and Roseann and Jennifer Palermo. Dear brother to Marguerite Provenzano. Dominic is also survived by his 13 loving grandchildren.

“ Our deepest condolences on the loss of a great man and an Even better Neighbor. He was a smiling face on a rainy day. Not only did my family and children adore him. He was one of my dogs favorite people. He was my Italian security system, an ear to listen to my problems, and always a sound voice to give me his advice. He was an original Acacia Avenue stable. And his presence will sorely be missed on this block. We love you Dom. May you rest in eternal peace.
