“ Donald, what can I say? I am so sorry for your family's loss. You were such a force in my life when we were younger. You helped me realize who and what I was at a very confusing time in my life. You and I stayed friendly throughout our most of adulthood and I'm sorry that we didn't get to say goodbye. Helen, Don and Ellen, I am so deeply sorry for your loss. The Donald I knew was a beautiful person inside and out. The memories I have are good ones and that's how I shall remember you, Donald. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ Don,

You and I were friends for so many years. We made so many memories together. I won't ever forget them. I could be in such a cranky mood but you would just show up and make me laugh. That was just who you were. Your smile and laugh lit up the room no matter where we were. You always went out of your way for everyone. You had such a big heart. You stopped by my house on Thursday with Precious and the last thing we said to each other was I love you and we would talk over the weekend. I hope you know how many people loved and cared about you. May your light continue to shine. I know you will be watching over everyone. Rest In Peace. Miss and love you!!

“ I am at a loss for words . Just so heartbroken and sad. 🥹💔🥹💔

I wanted to leave a few memories here for others to read

Donald so many memories I have running through my mind ...but will just leave a few ...

when you were little you used to hide in the small closet in the kitchen I still don't know how you fit in it and you would yell Mommy Mommy come find me. and Mommy would look and that was probably the last place and she'd open it and there you would be with that smile on your face.

the time Uncle Bill and Susie babysat us and they made popcorn in the kitchen without a cover on the pot and the kernels were everywhere and it looked like it was snowing in the kitchen and I just remember all of us laughing so hard.

the time you decided to go swimming in the mucky mud down the block at the end of token Street. Angela called to tell Mommy and mommy drove down the block to get you.

Snake in the shower that morning who went down to take a shower and I opened the bathroom door and turned on water to get to temperature. i opened the door and started to step in and to my surprise there was your albino snake curled up enjoying the water. I on the other hand almost ran through the glass doors to the shower. The time you put our cat tTiger in the dryer to watch him walk like the hamsters did in their cage. only thing was you shut the door and turn the dryer on and I heard something and loud me out and I came down and opened the door and that poor cat came cockeyed out meowing and could not even walk straight.

my most recent memory was May 11th when I flew out to Indianapolis Indiana to pick you up because you called me and told me you did not feel good and you could not drive home. I booked that flight immediately and literally just made it on the airplane before they close the doors and an hour and half later I landed. and then we started to drive home. I drove from 3 pm straight through to 3am. you were in so much pain 🥹. We drove by many hospitals but you just wanted to get home . Finally we stopped at a motel because I just could not drive anymore Slept for 3 hours .

We bonded on the drive home . I told you that never ever again are you to move far away from me . The drive home was way way too long and you agreed so we came up with you can move within 1 hour of me anywhere that I go.....

Rest In Paradise

Love you Forver

“ To know him, was to love him.

One memory I will remember is when Donald was in 3rd grade and his teacher called me, she said on the phone "Your son drew a perfect pair of tits." When my husband and I confronted him, he said it was a birds nest. Or the time he put our cat at the time, in the clothes dryer to see if it would run around like a hamster. There are so many memories, I could go on.

We will always love you.

Love Mom & Dad. ❤️❤️

“Uncle Don, I'm going to miss you so much. Even if we didn't see eye to eye or we argued sometimes over the dumbest things, you were someone who would go out of your way no matter what to help anyone, even a stranger. You were selfless and could bring a smile to anyone's face. A memory I remember the most, was the time we decided to make "homemade stress balls" out of the blue since I was with water balloons and flour in the kitchen, and at the end, we barely made one 'stress ball' and the whole kitchen and you and I.. covered in flour- a memory I will cherish forever.

- love you forever, rest in peace.

Your niece Julianna.

You brought a Smile to my face every time that I saw you and I will miss You, Your Hugs, Your Calls, and Our Video chats. You were Handsome, Thoughtful, Kind, Generous and you always went out of your way to help others. If I ever needed you, You were always there and you were everything that a Cousin should be. You called me almost everyday and you made everyone around you feel Special. You truly were Amazing and I'm going to miss you with all of my heart. You were my Favorite. God must have needed an Angel up in Heaven because when he took you, That is exactly what he got. Cousin Donald, Not a day will go by where I don't think of you & Miss you.
