

Dorothy Fusco

May 19, 1932 - September 15, 2023

And now, the end is near
And so I face the final curtain
My friend, I'll say it clear
I'll state my case, of which I'm certain
I've lived a life that's full
I traveled each and every highway
And more, much more than this
I did it my way
- Frank Sinatra

I knew Dorothy through my husband, Santo Buscemi. He knew her as Dimples. Santo was childhood friends with her husband Albert from old Brooklyn. They all became great close friends, in fact I think he married me because I was a red head. He just loved Dimple and her beauty, inside and out. Albert and Dimples were so close to Santo that he became Godfather to their beautiful daughter Denise. How many wonderful stories Santo shared with me about the memories from those times together. I shall always remember Dimples as that young vibrant red head with her forever love Albert. Now they are all together again. With all my love, prayers and sympathy..Kathy Buscemi

“ I met Dorothy, a.k.a. Dottie as she was known by her friends and family when I attended a party at Vin and Denise’s house. I remember thinking wow what a lovely lady beautiful in face and dress. I thought this is a woman of class and elegance, always impeccably dressed.

She always took the time to have a conversation with me ask for my family and pay me compliments on my decorating. Always very sweet she remained the same throughout the years.

Dottie may you rest in the arms of our Lord, you are home with Him and your sweetheart, Albert. I will always hold you in fond memories. With love, Linda Cella.
