“ I have many special memories from my childhood growing up on East 4th Street and living next door to Dorothy & Charlie, Chuckie, Tommy and Jennifer when she came every summer to visit Grams. And how Dorothy would cry on her porch as she told me that Jennifer left to go back to Georgia. Her heart would break and mine would break for her.

I remember the smell of her delicious cooking as I walked through my alleyway, the sound of talk radio coming through the open windows and her cheering her favorite team. She would always tell me she loved to watch the travel shows because she felt like she was taking a trip there watching it. I remember Dorothy would always sing, "Here She Comes Miss America" whenever I came out of my house. That would always make me smile. She would call me Cinderella whenever she saw me sweeping the front sidewalk. How did she know Cinderella was my favorite character? The summer before I started 11th grade, Dorothy asked me which classes I would be taking. When I told her Chemistry, she said, maybe you will meet a boy and have a chemical reaction with him. Boy was she right. I met my future husband, Anthony in chemistry class at New Utrecht HS. I always tell people that story.

I will miss her beautiful spirit and fun loving ways. Blessings and eternal peace in paradise to you, Dorothy. Much love and strength to her family as you carry on during this difficult journey of saying, "until we meet again".

Love, Karen (Nocera), Anthony, Jaimee, Margarite and Anthony Dylan Ranieri
