

Edward C. Beurnier

September 3, 1947 - September 5, 2022

Edward C. Beurnier, 75 of Great Kills, and formerly Dongan Hills and Annadale, passed away on Monday, September 5, 2022, at the Brooklyn VA Medical Center in Brooklyn.

Born Wednesday, September 3, 1947 in Bronx, New York, he was the son of the late Clarence Beurnier and the late Hedy (Roslan) Beurnier.

Born and raised in the Bronx, Edward attended James Monroe Highschool and graduated in 1965. Following high school Edward furthered his education for a year and attended the City College of the City University of NY. In late 1966 Edward was inducted into the US Army and served overseas in the USA RPAC, Vietnam before his honorable discharge in 1968. Upon his return stateside, and release from active duty, Edward returned to School and obtained his degree in 1969.

Edward began his career in Finance and worked for several firms throughout his long career, including Alliance Resume Service, Richmond Financial Associates, National West Bank as a VP of Commercial Lending, and finally VP of Commercial Lending at Fleet Bank before his retirement.

Edward led a very simple existence, He enjoyed the Opera, both attending and listening at home, gardening, travelling abroad in his younger years, he cherished reading books, had a true passion for friends and thoroughly loved life.

He was the loving father of Denise Caracciolo and Edward Beurnier. Adored father-in-law of Joe Caracciolo and Diana Beurnier. Dear brother of the late Ronnie Beurnier. Cherished grandfather of Matthew and Isabella.

Should friends wish to honor Edward's memory Donations may be made to Meals on Wheels, 304 Port Richmond Ave, Staten Island, NY 10302 or online at <<https://mealsonwheelsofstatenisland.com/donate/>>

Cemetery Details

Rosehill Crematory
Rosehill Crematory

Tribute Wall

“ Edward C. Beurnier

October 04, 2023 at 06:13 PM