

Edward J. Kachik

April 6, 1938 - February 3, 2017

Edward J. Kachik, also known as "Flinstone", 78 Westerleigh, passed away on Friday, February 3, 2017, at Staten Island University Hospital South.

Born Wednesday, April 6, 1938 in New York, New York, he was the son of the late Joseph and Mary Kachik.

Edward was a graduate of Tottenville High School. As a young man he was an alter server at Mount Loretto and enjoyed playing basketball. He went on after High School and served as a Private in the Marines from 1956 to 1962. He was based out of Camp Lejeune in Jacksonville, North Carolina.

He was a printing entrepreneur for Advantage Press located in Manhattan on 21st street. He retired from his store in 2010.

Edward was the dear brother to his 5 siblings. He was predeceased by his brother Thomas Radek and his sister Caroline Radek Ekbom. He is survived by his sisters Alice Maldonado, Loretta Palisay and Mary Jane Weingartner.

A Memorial gathering will be held on Sunday, February 12th from 1:00 til 4:00 p.m. at Schaffers Taven, located at 2055 Victory Blvd (corner of Victory and Bradley Avenues).

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.scaliahome.com

Cemetery Details

Evergreen Crematory

1137 North Broad Street
Hillside, NJ 07205

Tribute Wall

“ Edward J. Kachik

October 04, 2023 at 06:13 PM

“ STONEMAN Thanks for all u have done for all u have known u were a father to me when I needed guidance in my younger years u made great strives to see that ur family came first & foremost. I loved u so much & never gave up on loving u I will truly miss all the great times we had & cannot wait to see u again. Rest in Pease love always Charlie.

Charles Palisay - February 06, 2017 at 06:21 PM