

Edward Lotito

April 30, 1936 - October 7, 2021

Edward "Eddie" Lotito, 85 of Great Kills passed away on Thursday, October 7, 2021, at Staten Island University Hospital South in Staten Island, New York.

Born Thursday, April 30, 1936 in Brooklyn, New York, he was the son of the late Alphonso Lotito and the late Columbia Caporale Lotito.

Edward, a US Army Veteran and retired Sanitation Worker for DSNY, was first and foremost a devoted family man.

Edward in his downtime, was a lover of Crossword puzzles. He was eager to go outside and play with his nieces and nephews and the neighborhood kids, keeping up with what they were doing. Following a long career, Eddie's favorite nights of the week were garbage pick up night, making sure to go out and greet the Sanitation workers who were on his route at the time and reminiscing about his own time on the job, as well as making sure his garbage was out in proper form for his brothers in service.

He was the devoted husband of Bridgett Lotito.

Loving father of Denise George. Dearest father in law of the late Tommy George.

Second grandfather to many nieces and nephews.

Cherished nephew of Florence Caporale.

Devoted brother, uncle and friend to all who knew him..

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 11:00 AM on Tuesday at St Clare Church located at 110 Nelson Ave Staten Island, New York 10308. Private Cremation to follow.

The family will receive friends from 4:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Monday, October 11, 2021, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

“ You will be missed Eddie. I loved hearing all of your great stories when I would visit on the holidays. One of my favorites was the "crumb cake and butter" combo. I now it eat the same way because of you. You were right...It sure is delicious! You had such a wonderful personality and truly one of the most kindest people I have ever met. May you rest in peace with my brother Tommy.

“ Bridgett and family,

So sorry for your loss. I always remember the big smile on your husband's face. May he rest in peace and may you find peace.

“ “Joe, do you dunk your donut?”

“Yeah, Eddie, I do.”

“See? Good man, Joe!”

Good man right back at you, Eddie. I see you now being greeted by all your cousins, “They were all full of pranks,” Elaine would say. “All the time.”

I see my dear Elaine laughing with that whole 60th Street family beyond all time now.

When I think of Eddie, I hear the laughter and see the intense sparkle in his eyes.

Perpetual light shines in such memories.
