

Edward J. Lowe

December 19, 1944 - February 2, 2026

Edward J. Lowe passed away in Pennsylvania on February 2, 2026.

He was born on December 19, 1944, in Staten Island, New York. He was the beloved husband of Kathleen O'Toole Lowe, with whom he shared 34 years of marriage. He was a devoted father to Erin and Frank, and to his late son, Edward. He was also a loving stepfather to Tara, Ryan, and Billy, and a cherished grandfather to Samantha, Courtney, Julia, and Jessica.

Edward resided in Wallenpaupack Lake Estates, Pennsylvania for more than 22 years.

He proudly served his country as a U.S. Navy veteran aboard the USS Shenandoah.

He worked as an Elevator Mechanic with Local 1 for 40 years, a career he took great pride in.

Ed enjoyed baseball and golf, maintained a lifelong interest in history, and found simple joy in taking golf cart rides through the lake community. Above all else, he cherished the time spent with his wife, children, and grandchildren.

“ I just saw Eddie's obituary and was saddened. He was a part of my early life as we tended bar at Cullens Tavern in SI and played on the softball team that won a championship! A really Great Guy. I had been thinking about Eddie the past couple of days for some reason? My dearest condolences to all of his family. RIP Steady Eddie. Jim Gribbin
