

Edward Major

February 4, 1959 - July 16, 2021

Edward Major, 62 of Eltingville, passed away suddenly on Friday, July 16, 2021, at Staten Island University Hospital North after complications of a recent surgery.

Born Wednesday, February 4, 1959 in Brooklyn, New York, he was the son of the late Thomas and Mary Major. He was the beloved husband of Camille Major nee McNerney. They were married for 30 years and raised their two children Gregory and Theresa.

Edward was the Vice President of Alba Wheels Up International, where he worked as a custom house broker. He had clients of over 30 years and he was well loved and respected by them.

He will always be remembered for his infectious sense of humor. Ed could brighten anyone's day with his jokes and loving personality.

In his earlier years, Edward could always be found on the golf course for his weekly round. He was an avid NY Mets and Rangers fan. He loved watching them play and going to games with his family and friends.

Music was another favorite pastime. He could always be found singing along with his favorite Beatles song. And most recently, Ed's newest hobby was becoming a cheese connoisseur. He loved learning and tasting new cheese. A fond memory he got Camille interested in recently and had them sharing nights of laughs and cheese together.

His family was the most important thing to him. He loved taking family trips with them. His most memorable trips included cruises and Disney World.

He is survived by his wife Camille, his children Gregory and Theresa, his brother Thomas and his wife Alice, his brother and sister in laws Judy Major, Marie & Donald Freibergs, Frank & Heidi McNerney and his nieces and nephews Thomas, Laura, Christopher, Matthew, Daniel, Meredith, Margaret, Andrew, Ryan and Christina.

Ed was also predeceased by his brother James and his mother and father in law William and Theresa McNerney.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be at 10:00 AM on Thursday at Holy Child Church located at 4747 Amboy Road Staten Island, New York 10312. Interment will be in Moravian Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Tuesday, and 2:00 -5:00 PM and 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Wednesday, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.scaliahome.com

A New York State decision that those who are vaccinated are no longer required to wear masks. However, our staff who have serviced over 350 covid funeral services safely will wear masks to protect those who have not been vaccinated or those who feel uncertain and our own families. We feel this is necessary because we have handled 8 covid deaths in the month of May and more as of this writing of June 21st.

Due to the current pandemic circumstances please note: We ask that you please send bakery products, fruit baskets, and other personal items to the families home directly. Floral Arrangements can be purchased from our in-house floral designers by calling 718-948-2016 to place your order or to request a catalog of selections that can be emailed to you.

“ Dear Ed,

This feels like a bad dream. It was not supposed to go this way, but God had a different plan. I trust you are in a beautiful place watching down on us and knowing you - cracking jokes! Thank you for all your support, hilarious conversations, and for being a good friend. We will always have mango sticky rice in Manhattan. My friend, rest in peace – I miss you already.

My deepest condolences to the Major Family. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

*Love,

“ I believe there are memories we have that will keep our friends and loved ones with us. I have many of Eddie that will allow me to smile and be glad that I knew him. My friends and I are fortunate to be able to share over 50 years of stories and memories with each other. We know we are truly blessed and realize even more how important these memories and stories are when a friend physically leaves us. But I know that while they are gone they still remain with us forever.

To Camille, Theresa, Gregory as well as the rest of Eddie's family and friends I am sure you will miss Eddie more than anyone can imagine, but I hope your memories will keep him with you forever.

With Love,

James Yio

“ So sorry to hear. I haven't seen/spoke to Eddie in many years but from time to time, a memory of him would pop into my mind. Always a positive attitude and the ability to make you laugh. Some may recall when he made up his own language (something like Pig Latin) which we called Maj-English. Rest easy my friend...

“ I am heartbroken to hear of my good old school friend Eddie’s passing. He is one of the firsts to go from our class. But Eddie was always a leader. Quick with a joke and a hearty laugh to follow.

His brother Tommy was always surprised when I tell him that Eddie was our Class President for s few years! And he always won by a landslide!

While at a family funeral at Calverton Eddie asked if we might visit the grave of his namesake and favorite uncle, Uncle Eddie. When we found the grave we discovered that it would have been his Uncle Eddie’s 100th Birthday, that day!!! We gathered around and sang Hapoy Birthday and said s few prayer, too.

Eddie loved life and believed in honoring and respecting the dead. I’m sure he’s in a better place surrounded by friends and family on the other side.

My father would always say, “You’re not dead until people stop talking about you.” Therefore, Eddie will be with us in spirit fir years and years to come.

God Bless you Eddie. May May God watch over you and your family

“ This was just devastating news. There aren't enough words to describe Eddie Major.

He was the best! Fun, funny, kind, compassionate, loyal, hilarious, lighthearted, loving, joyful, positive, upbeat, fun-loving, ready-to-go, beloved by all, and never ever a bad word about any one!

He was an incredible father, a loving and devoted husband, a wonderful uncle and Godfather, and a friend to everyone he met on his journey through life.

We lost a really good one yesterday but his light shone so bright on earth it will continue with our wonderful memories and stories of our beloved Eddie. The love remains.

Rest in peace my sweet friend, my sweet brother-in-law, and say hi to Jimmy and Moondoggie for me!!!!!! xoxoxo
