“ My dearest Aunt Eileen. How truly blessed I am to have had you as my Aunt and friend. I have such fond memories growing up with you in my life. As a child and an adult you were always there for me spoiling and loving me so, I could always count on you. Praise God no more pain and suffering, you have been made new with the promise of eternal life. Until the day we meet again my precious Aunt Eileen I love you with all my heart. Donna Mandeville.

“ To my wonderful Aunt Eileen. You spoiled me so as a child. As a teenager I couldn't wait to come home because you'd be waiting for me so we could play 500 Rummy and you always won. I took your name Eileen as my confirmation name. You made such a difference in my life and the lives of all around you. I love you so much and look forward to seeing you again in heaven

“ My sweet aunt Eileen! The aunt I was given my middle name after. I have so many fond memories visiting you and uncle Joe in Brooklyn, dancing at your wedding and spending my summers Upstate. You were so generous, always, but I specifically remember that summer you bought Chrissy and I a white pair of Calvin Klein jeans at Kings Plaza Mall. They were my very first pair (my only pair). lol They were very expensive, but you wanted your niece and great niece to have them. You were one AMAZING cook! I loved your sauce, chicken cutlets and salads just to name a few. I am so glad we got to talk a couple weeks ago and were able to reminisce about the good ol' days and all those wonderful memories I have. Even though you have never met John, he knows you were an FABULOUS aunt, sister and woman! Until we met again, my sweet aunt Eileen. WE LOVE YOU!!!

I love you so much my dear Aunt Eileen. As a child you were my savior; you spoiled me in so many ways and I was very grateful. I chose Eileen as my confirmation name. As a teenager I could not wait to come home because I knew we'd be playing 500 Tummy and we'd share laughter. You were my maid of honor at my wedding. My children and everyone I know adored you. May God bless you in heaven for all you have done to make so many lives better. I will see you soon
