Elaine was a loving mother, and a loving wife.

She was a most generous and caring individual ; nonjudgmental, never finding fault with anyone including Jack. She never uttered a bad word and found good in everyone.

Elaine loved her family and friends, especially, her get together childhood buddies Pat, Elaine, Kathy, Judi, Linda and Anne. She also enjoyed our Friday night telephone calls to my brother, Tom, who called her Lainey and his wife Marianne.

She loved shopping, hanging out with family and friends at the Royal Flamingo Swim Club, trips to Wildwood, and Ocean City. She loved our trips to Aruba "One Happy Island" for one happy girl.

Elaine was preceded in death by her Aunt Nora (Sissy) Mc Cormack, her parents Marion and Rudy Masseria, her brother Matthew, sister Lisbeth and nephew Thomas.

She is survived by her loving husband Jack, daughter Eleanor, granddaughter Adrianna, son-in-law Dieter and grand dogs Bailey and Milton. Her siblings Karen, Marianne, Rudy, Joseph, Diane, Michael, Steven, Laura, Thomas, Bryan, John, Tara and many nieces and nephews and great nieces and great nephews.

“ When I think about our friendship, Elaine and I grew up together.. Elaine on Brooklyn Avenue and me on 37th Street.. we knew early on that we liked to do the same things.... Go to Farraguet Pool, where we were the doubles champion ping pong players, Riis Park, dances on Friday nights at St. vinny s, dancing in Rockaway at the Bay Lounge, McNultys, McGuinnesses or our trips to the city to the Peppermint Lounge.. Elaine always fun loving, pretty, smart (95 average). We also went to highschool together at Catherine McAuley. Elaine was the oldest of the Masseria family and set the example of an amazing sister, wife, mother and friend... God Bless her now along with her beautiful mom, Aunt Sissy, Dad, sister, Liz and brother, Matthew... We will all miss you Elaine.
