“ Happy Birthday beautiful Angel! I was blessed to know Eleanor for 50 years. I met Eleanor at a time when my life was full of emotional turmoil. I was 13 years old, and Eleanor became like a second mother to me, she was the light! She was an angel sent to me from God, the epitome of a loving mother and friend. I will honor her and hold her in my heart forever; as she has left an indelible mark on my life.

My deepest and sincere sympathy to the D'Aquila family.

*All My Love,
Susan*

“ Doreen, Cheryl, Anthony, Jack, and all your families. My deepest sympathy to you all. Growing up across the street from this great family is one of my best childhood memories. Doreen and I were teen buddies and to El, I was her "Pia", which she jokingly called me at times. She was my "birthday twin" and for many years we spoke on "our day". Mom and dad (Tony and Terry Alessi) shared so many funny stories of their time with El and Tony. I cherish these memories and stories. RIP El, big hugs to you all. Love Carmela
