“ So many of my best childhood memories are spending a holiday at Auntie El's house. It was always full of laughter and smiles. Everyone always loved being there. Her character and passion was all around you. Auntie El always had time for me, because we shared a love of collecting things, anything! She was always someone I looked forward to seeing because she was always interested in the same things. Matchbox cars, Planters peanut stuff, even star wars figures. What young kid wouldn't love an aunt like her. She was the best. Nothing but love ever came from her, and I will miss her dearly. All of us McDonalds here in Florida send our love, condolences, tears and hugs to Andy and Chrissy. We miss you, and wish we could be there. God Bless You All and know like I do that Heaven is a much, much more funny place with Auntie El!

Love- Christopher and Terri
