

Eleanor M. Lucid

October 11, 1934 - October 21, 2016

Eleanor Lucid, 82 of Huguenot, a homemaker and beloved wife, mother and grandmother passed away Friday at her home.

Born Eleanor Reybert, in Brooklyn, Mrs. Lucid graduated from Bay Ridge High School and worked as an executive assistant at New York Telephone in downtown Brooklyn before the birth of her first child. She and her husband John, of 58 years, moved to Staten Island in 1965. She was a communicant at Our Lady Star of the Sea where she was a dedicated volunteer for decades, including looking after the old church on Huguenot Avenue. She loved old stuff, enjoyed yard sales and was in charge of the OLSS Christmas Fair White Elephant table for many years.

She loved spending time with her family and friends and brought great joy to many, especially her grandchildren. ♦My mom had a terrific dry sense of humor, and was someone that everyone could and did rely upon♦, said her son Jack.

She was pre-deceased by her brother William Reybert and her sisters Kay Hayes and Eileen Reybert, the latter to whom she was guardian.

She is survived by her husband, John, her sons Jack and Jerry and three grandchildren Sam, Conor and Erin.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be at 10:00 AM on Wednesday at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church located at 5411 Amboy Road Staten Island, New York 10312. Arrangements include Private Cremation.

The family will receive friends from 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM and 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Tuesday, October 25, 2016, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.
