“ I love you Nonna . Rest in peace in all your Beauty! Thank you for the legacy and the memories . You were head of the family with tradition and values . You modeled for four daughters how to be strong women. You taught them how to cook delicious especially your famous rice balls. What you instilled in your daughters gets past down through generations. My mom taught me and I will teach my daughter. 10 grandchildren that looked up to their Nonna. We are all unique but our similarities was our love for you. Some of your 14 great grandchildren are too young to remember but know that you love them and will be their angel to help guide them. You left behind a legacy and many people that will carry you in their hearts. Thank you for many years of love and memories Nonna.
