“ Aunt Betty was so full of life , she tell you like it is .no sugar coating it . When we visit from Ohio ,there wouldn't be 1 square inch on a table that didn't have food ,she didn't let you starve .and the Biggest wise cracking smart ass . She let you have it if she thought you were up to no good . Back in the day her and my mom would team up on me ,I had no chance in Hell I had to be good . She had that bullshit meter, you try bullshiting her I think a 2 foot horn grew from her head and she knew it. Her n my mom were walking lie detectors, so you just better confess and get it over with . No I didnt break that Aunt Betty .. she stair you down like the FBI ,Okay okay I did it, can I get this beating over with . As long as your sorry ass confessed she forgave you immediately than would stuff you like a Thanksgiving Turkey.. Punishment never lasting long she was to busy making food . She was so Awesome, the reason I'm a wise ass today . A little bit of me died also, butt I'll bust people's balls in her Honor to my last breath . And I inherited that bullshit meter ,MISS YOU AUNT BETTY, YOU WERE CLASSY AND A CLASIIC ,dont make them like her no more ..RIP

“ God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."

*With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.*

*Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

In Memory of Elizabeth Roccanova...the best Mom anyone could ever wish for.

*My condolences to the Roccanova family. I remember meeting Mrs. Roccanova on several occasions with Julie and Sal. She had a pinch of sass, a spoonful of wit and a cup full of fire. She was a remarkable woman who dedicated her life to her family. My deepest sympathy,
