“ The best of the greatest generation goes home to the Christ Child at Christmas. Grandma Betty (GiGi) will be forever remembered for the kindness, humility, strength, fortitude, determination, and ultimate joy that she brought to all who knew her. There will be a void in this world now, but it is her legacy and the legacy of those who knew her to fill it, by living a life that reflects the two great commandments. Loving God and loving each other remains the only way to leave the world a better place. GiGi certainly left the world better and brighter to all who loved her.

May the memories of her always fill our hearts with renewed faith, hope and love eternal. Every Christmas may we reflect on the message of those who shared her generation, and the unbelievable destiny that they had in leaving us a better country, world, and family. Surely she will be missed! Gods blessings on all this holy season,

*Till we meet again dearest GiGi in the twinkling of an eye!
Much Love from all our family Ann and Ed Miles*
