“ I'm horribly behind, and for that I apologize. Late May of 2014, I was given a room at SIUH-N. Elizabeth was my roommate and helped me get through a time when I didn't know what was going to happen. I regret not keeping in touch with her more, not making sure she was alright... It was only because I'm going back into surgery on Monday that I could have used her shoulder. My condolences to her family and those else that knew her.

“ Our deepest condolences to the family of Elizabeth. You are in our prayers. We were blessed to know Elizabeth and the joy she shared with our son, Simon. Simon was about 2 and Elizabeth would spend time teaching him how to write on his board. She gave him her undivided attention. As a Mom, it was a blessing to see your child be a blessing to another child and Elizabeth did that for our son. He is 10 now. Simon remembers Elizabeth. She is part of who he is today because she loved him and gave him the precious gift of her time. She will always be remembered by our family until we meet again at the foot of Jesus in heaven. Thank you, Joanne and Fabio for such a lovely lady in our life. May God strengthen and encourage each of you during this difficult time. Love from the Giacalone Family.

“ I remember our long talks. Liz loved living in Brooklyn as a teen, we used to sit by the nature walk as we called it. We both loved talking about gymnastics! I was so jealous of her that she took gymnastics as a child and her cart wheels were so perfect! I MISS YOU SWEET AND KIND HEARTED LIZ!!!
