

Emanuella M. Scopelliti

September 14, 1938 - May 22, 2026

Emanuella ("Nellie") was born in Brooklyn, New York, in 1938. As a child and young adult, she learned the Italian language from her grandfather and fell in love with it. She later spoke Italian with her husband, and together they taught their son. Nellie often said she loved not only the language, but also the traditions that came with it.

Nellie loved being a mother and later, a grandmother. She loved her grandchildren more than anything and never stopped bragging about them to everyone she met.

She was a woman of great faith who enjoyed cooking and baking, always bringing family and friends together around the table. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Emanuella was predeceased by her husband, Rocco. She is survived by her sister, Marie Cucchiara; her son, Carmine, and daughter-in-law, Joanna; her grandchildren, Christina, Robert, Carmine and his wife, Madeline and her step-grandchildren, Peter and Olivia.

Emanuella was predeceased by her husband, Rocco Scopelliti and nephew Thomas Cucchiara.

She is survived by her sister, Marie Cucchiara; her Brother Thomas; her nephew Joseph; her son, Carmine, and daughter-in-law, Joanna; her grandchildren, Christina, Robert, Carmine and his wife, Madeline and her step-grandchildren, Peter and Olivia

A Funeral service will be at 10:30 AM on Tuesday at St Thomas the Apostle Church located at 50 Maguire Avenue Staten Island, New York 10309. Interment will be in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

“ *Nellie has been a wonderful friend to me and my kids. I've known her for 30 years and my heart breaks that she has gone. She had a great faith, always made me laugh and she was gentle and kind. I know you will always be looking out for us and I know you are no longer in pain. Condolences to her family.
