

Emil S. Geosits

February 6, 1941 - December 15, 2023

Our Opa, Emil Geosits, joined his loving wife, Angela, in heaven on Friday, December 15th after 82 years on this earth.

Born during the second world war, he was raised on a farm in Austria with his siblings: Adolf, Albert, Josef, John, Gretl, Yolanda, and Annie. At the young age of 18 he left his home in search of a new beginning in America. They settled in New York and raised five children all of whom would grow up to be successful: Alicia Buscemi and husband Jon, Steven Geosits and wife Christina, Joseph Geosits and wife Brooke, Catherine Cannella and husband Don and Emil Geosits Jr. and wife Tara. Each of them had their own children, blessing him with a total of 14 grandchildren: Emily, John Michael, Annamarie, Frank, Salvatore, Angelina, William, Thomas, Ethan, Daniel, Leo, Jake, Mason, and Jaclynn.

Emil worked in several professions before settling and working for over 25 years as a cable technician.

Devoted to his family, friends, and church -- he would help with any task at hand, no matter how tough or costly to himself. He is known as "the man, the myth, the legend" amongst those who loved him. He was a child at heart, playing soccer with his grandchildren, building/repairing dams at Wolfe's Pond Park, trying to hit birds with rocks, exploring the beach, fishing, recycling everything and creating his famous mango mix.

When he wasn't helping out, he would be busy preparing to feed the masses with his overflowing garden that produced the best eggplant, cucumbers, tomatoes, zucchini, and squash that everyone craved. His greatest accomplishment was creating a basement & foundation for his already standing home while continuing to live there with his family.

Lastly, he loved spending time with his family on Sundays which is where he was an inspiration to his grandchildren, teaching them all sorts of life lessons. He will be forever missed.

The family will receive friends from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM and 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Tuesday, December 19, 2023, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York. Arrangements include private cremation.

“ Me and my boys met Emil just a few months ago at griefshare. In the short time we got to know him he was nothing but the sweetest & kindest man. My sons & Emil hit it off from the first night. They would discuss the Bible & because he was so on fire for the Lord, he shared a lot of insight with them. Always sending beautiful, inspirational texts messages. We are truly grateful for the short time we got to spend with him & even more grateful we accepted his invitation to go to his church one Sunday. He will most definitely be missed. Rest in Peace, sir.

“ Emil you were a faithful brother in Christ. I was blessed to work with you in the print shop, when we used to make a lot of books by hand. And it was a blessing doing operation Jerusalem with you. Snow, sleet, ice it didn't matter you were a faithful brother, to the Lord Jesus Christ. Well done my dear brother what a great soldier you were. Good for you, my dear brother, in the presence of our Lord right now, face-to-face.

“ Emil was a wonderful, empathetic and, caring man. He always had a word of encouragement and, a bible verse to share. He is in heaven now with his beloved wife Angela.

Matthew 25:21 {1611}

“His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.”

“ But if any man love God, the same is known of him. (1 Corinthians 8:3)

Anyone who met Emil Geosits knew that he loved Jesus. It was evident by his words & actions. We will all sorely miss him.

Farewell dear brother & friend. I know I will see you again. We'll sing praises to our Lord together as we did so often here on earth, but then much louder in his presence.
