“ You were always so kind to my parents. I will always be grateful that you spent time with them when you could.

I've known you a long time and more than anything, you were a loving mother to your children. It was so evident in everything you did.

Your Scottish accent always captivated me and it took me a while to realize that you also had a sense of humor.

You were always there for your family, especially your husband and your brother. No one is ever ready to let go of someone they love but I believe you will soon be in the loving arms of many who passed before you.

My prayers to you and your family. 🙏💕

“ My mom was the most wonderful person. More than wonderful. She was amazing, caring, heart of gold. Always wanted to make sure her granddaughters were happy. She always made sure Christina got her concert tickets and her merch and a lot more. Clarissa she made sure she had what she liked or anything she asked for. Especially around the holidays. Their sweet 16 I had her out and about before her 1st surgery . Planned everything in two weeks. She couldn't wait to go shopping for their dresses. I am just so happy she partied that day.. my moms smile was priceless. She made sure you were feed when you went her house.. everyone wanted her to make her baked ziti. Especially when her niece and nephew came in from California. And all our family members.. she always cooked for the holidays and brought it over. I can go on and on about my mom. She took care of her mom and my dad when they got sick. She always took care of us. My mom was my rock. Especially when I wanted to talk. My mom was there to listen. Especially about 2 weeks ago, I called her sobbing on face time that I missed her and I want her home. I loved her! I told my her “mommy fight” keep fightning mommy” she said she will! She texted me about an hour later to see if I was okay? She is in hospital bed and she made sure I was okay! I told her I was.. I told her again I loved her and to keep fighting she said she will. Mommy I guess you were tired and ur little Scottish body was tired. I keep going back on our texts to see if I missed something . My mom is my world and always be my world. I love you mommy fly with the angels fly with daddy and all our loved ones.. please mommy give me signs. I need them between you and daddy . Please send me a sign that you are okay.. mommy I am sorry you couldn't fight anymore. I love you mommy. Rest in peace.. I hope daddy took u to the “cloud casino” my heart is broken 🥺💔

“ I have known Emma for almost 60 years. I first met her when my best friend. (and her future husband) Louis introduced her to me. When she smiled, she won my heart. The only times I did not see that smile are when she yelled at me because I wasn't eating enough when I was invited to join the family for dinner. Regardless of the aches and pains and health issues, that smile was just as beautiful at age 76 as it was at age 19. The aches and health issues are over for her and I am comforted by the belief she is smiling alongside Louis as she looks down on her beautiful family. Rest in peace Emma...BobK

I worked with Emma for a short stint at Chicago Title. In that short period of time, I got to know her, and I gained a lot of respect for her. She was kind and supportive. She would light up when she would talk about her family; but especially her granddaughters. I just loved seeing their lovely communion pictures displayed on her desk. We had some nice chats. Emma had a lot to offer, and it was a pleasure to get to know her and work with her. I was very sorry to hear of her passing. She will be missed. Sending my heartfelt condolences to her family and friends.

“ Emma was a gem & though she did not have an easy life she took pride in her job, in her marriage, in her family. We shared a heritage her & I and when we worked together there was a bond & we understood & supported each other. She ALWAYS had my back and I hers. I have never had an assistant as dedicated and efficient as she was. She worked hard, gave her all and I will always be grateful that our paths crossed. I'll see you in the mist of the morn, my friend. Rest well...💕

Emma my friend. For over 20 years I would greet her in the morning. My name for her was Emskee. We would chat and laugh. She loved her girls and kept pushing even when it was hard. I'll miss her and the many laughs we shared. May she rest in peace and may God comfort her family at this time
