

Enda J. Killoran

November 20, 1957 - May 23, 2017

Enda Killoran, 59 Proud of his Irish heritage

Enda Killoran, 59, of Galway, Ireland, passed away peacefully at his home in Woodrow, S.I., on May 23, 2017.

Enda was born in Galway, Ireland, to James and Ethna Killoran on Nov. 20, 1957. He married Deborah Horn on Sept. 17, 1982, in New York City. They gave birth to their beautiful daughter, Casey, on July 11, 1987.

For the past 30 years, he worked as a clamdigger off the shores of Staten Island and New Jersey. He adored the water. Enda was a dedicated member of both The Princess Bay Boatmen's Association and The Knights of Columbus of Staten Island. His love for music was a powerful connection between those he met briefly as well as those he knew well. Enda was very proud of his Irish heritage. He had a passion for traveling the world, and he loved sharing his experiences with any and everyone he met. He belonged to the world. He was always loyal to his family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents. Enda is survived by his loving wife, Deborah Killoran of 34 years; his daughter, Casey Killoran; brothers, Tom, James, Eugene, and sister, Hilary Dzielski; mother-in-law, Elizabeth Karsa; his aunt, Debby; sister-in-law, Deirdre; nephew, Michael, and nieces, Casey, Elizabeth, Linda, and Kathleen, and a host of many other longtime family and friends. In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to The American Heart Association.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday at Our Lady Help of Christians Church located at 7396 Amboy Road Staten Island, New York 10307. Cremation will be private

The family will receive friends from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. on Friday at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station), Staten Island, New York.

“ *Hey cuz you had one beautiful life.
You traveled the world and tipped a few and had many laughs.
A beautiful wife and daughter and family and friends who loved you.
A big heart and adorable smile that I will miss.*

*As I move thru life I will keep your advice
"pedal on the level and free wheel on the downhill "*

*Love

“ Dear Enda ,
You were greatly loved . You told wonderful stories. We are truly blessed to have been part of your life . Like you always said give it to me good and send me home early (you had a good life and now your home maybe a little to early)

Love your family at ws

“ Dear uncle,
You've been there for me since I've been young. You were really my only biological family outside of my parents that lived anywhere nearby for most of my life. This school year when you helped me move my junk down to Maryland moved so quick. Thank you for everything that you've done, I wish I could've done more.
