

Etsuko Dickey

December 14, 1928 - June 19, 2017

Etsuko Dickey, a longtime resident of Staten Island passed away on the 19th of June after a short battle with cancer. She was born and raised in Tokyo, Japan and met her husband (the late) Robert Sr. in Yokohama, Japan when he was in the Army and stationed there. They were married in 1961 and settled in Staten Island near Fort Wadsworth.

Loving mother to a daughter, Nancy Young and sons Robert Jr., Thomas, and Martin Dickey. She also was "Grandma Dickey" to her five grandchildren: Kayla, Robert, Thomas, Olivia, and Michael.

Etsuko worked at the Woodrow Preschool as an assistant teacher for approximately 20 years and was part of Project Hospitality's team for many years.

Her passion was 'power' yoga which she actively participated in at the JCC five days a week and developed a special bond with the group of friends she had made there. She also spent a lot of her time reading, and traveling locally and abroad.

She was a very positive, energetic woman who always had a smile on her face. Enjoyed time with family and especially time spent with her grandchildren.

A private memorial service will be held.

Arrangements entrusted to the John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals. Online condolences may be made to the family at www.scaliahome.com
