

Fanny Mulay

July 30, 1912 - February 28, 2016

Fanny Mulay passed away peacefully at the age of 103, on Sunday at Eger Nursing Home where she had been a resident since 2006. Born in Manhattan she lived in Brooklyn, before moving to Staten Island. While on the Island she lived in Grant City, South Beach and Oakwood . Fanny was an expert seamstress and she could best be described as a perfectionist, who when called upon could handle and solve and difficult task. A woman of varied interest she enjoyed bowling, watching neighborhood baseball games, and she was an avid Yankee Fan. In her spare time she enjoyed knitting and crocheting. She was a den mother for Cub Scouts and a member of the Democratic Committee. Since her teenage years Fanny read the Staten Island Advance daily. She was a member of Holy Rosary Church and St Charles Church. Her husband of 50 years, Charles pre deceased her in 1989. She is also survived by her daughter Stephanie Spero, and her two sons Charles and Peter. She also leaves behind her 4 grandchildren and her 3 great grandchildren.

The funeral will be on Thursday from the John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals Inc. 28 Eltingville Blvd. A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at St. Charles Church at 9 15 AM, burial will follow in Calvary Cemetery Woodside Queens. A gathering of family and friends will take place on Wednesday from 6-9PM
