

Florence Monaco

September 10, 1924 - April 6, 2018

Florence Monaco, 93 of Great Kills, passed away peacefully on Friday, April 6, 2018,

She was born and raised in Brooklyn, NY to the late Michael Angelo Rubino and Lucy Pucci Rubino. Florence spent most of her life in Brooklyn, before settling in Great Kills in 2000.

In her leisure time she enjoyed watching old movies on the television, especially watching the Turner Classic channel. She also loved to cook and do needle point. Above all, Florence loved spending time with her family, especially holidays and cooking Sunday dinners. Christmas was her favorite holiday and she always looked forward to decorating, especially setting up her Christmas Villages.

She was predeceased by her beloved husband of 63 years, Angelo, who passed away in 2009.

Florence was the loving mother to Fran Avitabile and Michael Monaco; fond mother-in-law to Philip Avitabile and Rose Monaco; devoted grandmother to Jennifer Carone and Michael Monaco; and cherished great grandmother to Vincent and Isabella Carone.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 9:45 a.m. on Monday at St. Clare Church located at 110 Nelson Avenue Staten Island, New York 10308. Entombment will follow in Cloverleaf Memorial Park , Woodbridge, NJ.

The family will receive friends from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. on Sunday at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station), Staten Island, New York.

“ Florence was such a special person. She always went above and beyond to make people feel special. Always warm with the best smile and loved her family dearly. It would be very difficult to find a wonderful person like her in a lifetime. She truly was one of a kind. We know she is looking down at her family with loads of pride and a great big smile. May she always rest in peace in heaven. She will be missed. Love Joe and Flora
