

Frances Barbuto

September 30, 1928 - April 16, 2020

Frances Barbuto, 91 passed away on Thursday, April 16, 2020, at Staten Island University Hospital South.

Born September 30, 1928 in Brooklyn, NY, she was the daughter of the late Vincent and Antonietta (Toscano) Scafidi.

Frances, a homemaker spent the first 75 years of her life in Brooklyn, raising her family with her husband the late Anthony Barbuto.

A mother of 3 daughters, Frances was a devoted mother to them all. In her free time Frances loved Bowling, she was a dedicated Bunko Player, and relished trips to Atlantic City with her husband and friends, More than anything Frances cherished her family, her children and grandchildren and great grandchildren were her life.

Beloved wife of the late Anthony Barbuto who passed away in 2014. Loving mother of Annette Apesa, Rosemarie Agosta and the late Joanne Aizenberg. Dear mother in law of Felice Agosta, Frank Apesa and Hector Aizenberg.

Cherished grandmother of Nicole Mancusi, Lisa and Michael Geritano, Kristine Agosta, Ian Aizenberg and Eric Aizenberg, and great grandmother of Samantha Mancusi, Milania Mancusi and Michael Geritano Jr.

Interment will be in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

Donations in Memory of Frances, may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Center.

Cemetery Details

Resurrection Cemetery

361 Sharrot Avenue
Staten Island, NY 10309

Previous Events

Visitation

APR 22. 11:00 AM (ET)

Resurrection Cemetery
361 Sharrot Avenue
Staten Island, NY 10309

Tribute Wall

“ Frances Barbuto

October 04, 2023 at 06:13 PM

“ My favorite memory of MrsB, and I have many, was when we came home from Watkins Glen and she tossed the newspaper on the table and said, "This is where you were?!" Always watching out for us. Rest well Mrs. B.

Marianne - April 24, 2020 at 02:13 PM

“ Rest in Peace Fran. Loved your spunk and the many laughs we had together. Missing all "the girls". Bunko in Heaven where everyone's a winner. 💔

Andrea - April 24, 2020 at 10:14 AM