

Frances Josephine Capone

January 20, 1920 - April 30, 2019

Frances J. Capone, age 99, beloved and devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great-grandmother, passed away peacefully, Monday, April 29, 2019, while surrounded by her loving family. She was born in Brooklyn, NY and was a resident of Rio Rancho, NM. Frances loved her family fiercely and she could be found at the center of every family gathering. Frances had a fire in her soul and a zest for life. Her laughter was contagious and her smile could light up a room. She loved to frequently go to the casino, where you find her at her favorite slot machine "Roman Tribune". Frances was her family's chief cornerstone, who could be depended on in good times and bad times. Anyone who knew her loved and adored her. She was everyone's mother and grandmother. Her legacy will live on long after her death, because of all the lives she touched in her 99 years lifespan.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Guiseppe Salmonese and Concetta Colletti; her husband, Joseph Capone, Sr.; sons-in-law, Frank Coccimiglio and Randy D'Amato. Frances is survived by her loving children, Constance Coccimiglio, Lucille DAmato, and Joseph Capone, Jr. and wife Francine all of Rio Rancho, NM; her grandchildren, Deborah LaRosa and husband Joseph, Frank Coccimiglio and wife Mona, Michael D'Amato and wife Lisa, Carmine Capone and wife Annette, Diana D'Amato and husband Johnny, Joseph Coccimiglio and wife Niomi, Frances Burke, Joseph Capone, III, Terri Capone-Compton and husband Craig; 28 great-grandchildren; and 20 great-great-grandchildren. Frances will be greatly missed by her loving family and by all those whose lives she touched.
