“ Condolences for your lost. Our family will miss Francis and Julio just as much. They are the most kind hearted people that have crossed my path and touched my heart. I am fortunate enough to have met them, worked with them and interacted with them. I wish your family the deepest condolences In this time of mourning. I hope you guys can find peace in this time of need. Remember that the ones that leave us, never are truly gone forever, they live forever in our hearts and our memories.

Frances was a sweet and dear friend to both my mother and me... She had a special way of caring for people that is very rare. Her face would light up each time she mentioned Julio, her daughters and grandchildren.....she had so much love in her. Heaven truly has another angel now..she will be greatly missed. My heart goes out to her girls and grandchildren.

“ I miss your smiling face already, all our conversations about Avon, Girl Scout Cookies, and the list goes on and on. Someone once told me that my husband reminded him of Julio and I thought that was a huge compliment. RIP, Frances

“ I worked with Fran many years ago. She and Julio were both wonderful people. Jen...you probably remember me. My heart aches for all of you. It was not so long ago that Fran and I had a phone chat. Of course, when I saw her in Costco, she always had good stories about her family. God rest their souls. May God give you all the strength to get through this very heartbreaking and difficult time. Love,

“ It is with a very heavy heart that I write this. Jennifer, you probably remember me. You, mom, Lee and I would have dinner now and then. Fran was a wonderful person and so was Julio. May God rest their souls. May you girls and your families find comfort in the many memories of your parents. They were the salt of the earth kind of people. If there is anything I can do for you, please don't hesitate to call me. I am truly sorry for your loss.
