

Frances Slattery

December 13, 1921 - December 24, 2017

Frances Slattery formerly of Oak Wood passed away on December 24, 2017 at Carmel Richmond Nursing Home surrounded by her loving family. She was one of 8 girls born to the late Felix and Johanna Bogue, who were affectionally known as the Bogue Sisters. Frances was an accomplished singer who sang at all family functions, where she often rendered her version of the Frank Sinatra hit My Way. She worked for close to 30 years at the Amalgated Bank of New York in Union Square. She often recounted the story of first day at work as a teller and the Bank was being robbed. The bank robber approached her window demanding her money, she politely told the robber she had no money in her drawer and to go to the next window. She subsequently was awarded a WMCA 570 Good Guys Tee shirt from the radio station. She was a die hard Mets fans, she enjoyed playing Bingo and would often take the bus back back to her home Parish in Brooklyn to play an occasional game. She volunteered with the American Legion and she enjoyed life to its fullest. Her favorite Holiday was Christmas Eve where she cherished spending the night with her entire family, and her children thought it was fate that she passed on Christmas Eve with her family by her bedside.

She was pre deceased by her husband Thomas and her daughter Lorraine Tedesco. She is survived by her daughter Eileen Cottingham, her son Daniel, her 8 grandchildren and her 12 great grandchildren.

A gathering of family and friends will take place on Thursday from 2-5 & 7-9 PM at the John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc. A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered for Frances on Friday at the Church of the Holy Child beginning at 11:00AM. Interment will follow in Ocean View Cemetery

Tribute Wall

“ So sad to hear of Frances’s passing. I used to work with her at Amalgamated Bank and at times we used to go out after work with Colon Blades, Sydney and others. She was a wonderful and caring person. It was a pleasure to have worked and socialize with her. Rest In Peace and May God bless and keep you. Jean Z.
