

Francis C. Fischer

December 20, 1942 - January 11, 2026

Francis C. Fischer, 83, passed away on January 11, 2026.

Born in Brooklyn, New York, Francis spent the majority of his life in Staten Island, a place he proudly called home. He built a life rooted in dedication to his family, his work, and his country.

Francis worked for many years on Wall Street in the Financial District, where he was known for his strong work ethic and commitment. He also proudly served as a member of the Army National Guard, reflecting his deep sense of duty and service.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Donna, with whom he shared 58 years of marriage, love, and partnership. Together they built a family grounded in loyalty, devotion, and strength. He was a loving father to Lori, David, Danielle, and Darren, and a proud grandfather to Sadie and Charles, who brought him immense joy.

Francis is also survived by his siblings Joseph and Gina, and was predeceased by his siblings Robert and Rosemary.

In his younger years, Francis enjoyed golfing and playing softball and football, pursuits that reflected his love of sports, camaraderie, and staying active. He will be remembered for his steady presence, dedication to his family, and the quiet strength that defined his life.

Francis will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing him.
